Being aware helps to keep you centred in the present moment and improves your intuition and sense of direction in life. We often hear people state that spiritual development is a journey and this is something I've said before myself. Spiritual development is taking part in a process of transformation, so in a sense, this can be referred to as ...

Being Aware | Be Aware of Living in the Present Moment

Spira says the great difficulty people have in becoming aware of awareness is entirely due to the fact that awareness cannot be observed from an exterior vantage point, as is the case in normal object/observer dualism. So although awareness really is closer than close, it seems distant and inaccessible because of this non-dual property.
