Invisible Women: A hilarious, feel-good novel of love ...

Invisible Women is a book both entertaining and deep. The story is fun but above all, a clever pretext to subtle thoughts from the author. It is about life, family, children growing up and leaving the house, and about the need for seduction and love... and the complexity that follow.

Invisible Women: A hilarious, feel-good novel of love ...

Invisible Women was an emotional and down - to - earth journey of finding yourself afresh, about realising that living a routine is not the best possible way to live your life. It was about some really serious issues that not everyone would dare to write about, such as ageism or mental health problems, and the author has dealt with them in a great way.
